

The Viaduct Cup

Chapter 22

Worksheet

Read Chapter 22

Kit loses interest in life. She is lost in her grief and doesn't see the point in anything.

She is fined at work but doesn't care.

She steals from the local shop.

Why do think she does that?

How does it make her feel?

Chapter 22 Activity

Kit sings a song to Sergeant Beswick.

“Goodbye. Goodbyeee, wipe a tear baby dear from your eyeeee.”

This is a song made famous during the First World War.

With no radio or tv, or streaming services- how did people hear music?

How did they learn the famous songs?

Can you learn and perform some songs from the period?

Some famous ones include: ‘Are you downhearted?’ and ‘Keep the home fires burning’

Can you make a sound track to accompany the book of The Viaduct Cup using modern day songs? You will have to choose some exciting songs, some sad, some happy and maybe some triumphant. What will you choose for each section of the story?

Chapter 22 Activity

Can you make a soundtrack to accompany the book of The Viaduct Cup using modern day songs? You will have to choose some exciting songs, some sad, some happy and maybe some triumphant. What will you choose for each section of the story?

