

The Viaduct Cup

Chapter 26

Worksheet

Read Chapter 26

Kit meets Miss Bamford in the tearoom to discuss starting a team.

Miss Bamford is keen- she thinks she can raise money for charity.

Why does Kit need someone like Miss Bamford to help?

What can she do that Kit can't?

Can you find out about the different charities that were set up during the war?

Why were they needed?

If you were to set up a charity close to your heart- who would you support and why?

Chapter 26 Activity

Kit writes a letter to Bernie because she doesn't have a grave to visit.

If you could write to Bernie to let him know what Kit is up to- what would you say?

Can you come up with some arguments as to why you should be allowed to start a football team.

What objections could there be?

How would you overcome them?

Chapter 26 Activity

Lots of First World War soldiers expressed their feelings through poetry. Can you write an acrostic poem about Kit's dreams of playing football?
