Read Chapter 37

The Allsorts go into the break two- nil down.

Kit's dad is watching- he thinks the referee is biased. He hasn't changed- he still thinks the world is against the brackens. Does Kit still think that way?

Kit asks the team why they are playing? They all have their own reasons.

What would be your reason for playing?

How does this scene make you feel?

They go back out onto the pitch- ready to give it their all.

Chapter 37 Activity

Imagine you are the captain of The Allsorts football team and you are two-nil down in the most important match of your lives.

What would you say to motivate the team in a half time talk?
