

The Viaduct Cup

Chapter 17

Worksheet

Read Chapter 17

Bernie comes home from training in his uniform, and they have their photograph taken. Think about how precious that photograph would have been to them.

They meet their dad in town begging for money- What do you think he feels seeing his son in uniform?

What does Bernie feel knowing he is going to war leaving behind his mother and sister and drunken father? Does he seem worried for himself? Or for his family?

Chapter 17 Activity

Can you find some photographs of soldiers and their families taken during the war?

How important would those photographs have been?

Can you dress up in the costume of the period and take your own photographs?

Draw a picture of what you think the photograph of Bernie and Kit would have looked like.

