Worksheet

Read Chapter 28

Kit and Ned wait in the park for players to turn up. They have a poor turnout.

Why would girls be reluctant to join a football team?

They are interrupted by some boys who don't think the girls should play. Why would they be so worried? Perhaps they are concerned the world at home is changing while they are away at war.

They come up with the name- The Allsorts.

Why do they call themselves that?

What would you call a new football team and why?
